All things considered, better results sould doubtless be attained if the county remocratic committee had seen fit to ail two conventions, one for the nomi nation of delegates to the constitutional convention and the other for the nomi-nation of county officers. The short time intervening between now and the election and the fact that the Republican nomi-pers have all been announced, probably induced the committee to assign the duty individual Democrat should give his in-dividual attention to the study of the political situation and go to his pri-mary fully equipped for discharging the important duty that will devolve upon him. The best judgment of the individal members of the Democratic party must be expressed by the action of the elegates assembled in county conven-ion. Each delegate will have to act his own responsibility, but in doing he must conform as nearly as possito the known wishes of his constituis. In the primary is where the inidual voter has an opportunity to excas his wishes. The primary is in rate who liters to such should not are markes next Threaday night should not are aw themselves to be calcied, coerced or ow themselves to be calcied, coerced or own the terminal to promise to support any man. Hear what each candidate has to say and then attend your primary untrammeled, free to act as your best judgment dictates. Democrats in the county should remember the mistake made by the Republicans and avoid them; not so much for the party advantage which they offer, but for the public good. Houses, patriotic Republicans don't care to see incompetent men elected to office solely because they are Republicans; therefore it is incompetation of the country of the country to the clernal fitness of things.

VERDICT OF ADULTERY IN THE WHITE ADULTERY CASE.

Trial of Greenhalch et al. on the Charge of Selling a Salted Mine-Other Court Cases-Political Matters.

Provo. Sept. 28.-In the trial of the White adultery case, Ethel Rose was called by the prosecution and testified positively as to the defendant's guilt and giving all the circumstances and details, stating that her child was the result of her relations with White, who ness was corroborated on many circumstances by Mrs. Zina Brooks, a sister of the defendant, and George Brooks. This closed the testimony for miss was denied.

The defendant then took the stand and denied the girl's charges in toto. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. the "Brock gang," found guilty of in-voluntary manslaughter, Judge King for his arrest.

The case of the people vs. Peter Greenhalch et. al., who are accused of selling a "salted" mine to Mr. Robinson, of Fillmore, was then called up. If is alieged that the defendants, Peter Greenhalch, Nephi Jennings, Alex Jennings and Thomas Goff, obtained $2,000 from Robinson under false pretenses. Aimon Robinson paid the defendants 1500 at one time and $2,500 at another. The defendants had shown Mr. Robinson a piece of rock and represented to him that it came from the mine in question, when in reality it came from Colorado. The defendants also showed an assay said to be rock from the mine assaying $50,000 to the to.
